ATTEST:

RAMONA E. YRABAI, Clerk

RESOLUTION NO. 1

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GLENN'S FERRY HIGHWAY DISTRICT COMMISSIONERS AS FOLLOWS:

That during the winter months of November, December, January, February, and March of each year that excessive snow accumulations occur in that portion of the Glenn's Ferry Highway District from Highway 20 to Pine.

That the inhabitants of the Pine/Featherville area need and utilize snowmobiles for access to their homes and businesses during the winter months when snow accumulations on the highway are such that standard vehicles can no longer utilize the highway.

That there is a significant economic impact upon this area through the use of snowmobiles for recreational purposes upon the said section of highway.

That it is in the best interests of the Highway District and the public that the snowmobiles be authorized upon that portion of the Highway District Road extending from the intersection of State Highway 20 to the Pine bridge along the section of road delineated as Highway No. 102 and Highway No. 79 as designated by the Elmore Planning and Zoning Commission.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED By the Glenn's Ferry Highway District Commissioners that snowmobiles shall be allowed to be utilized pursuant to Idaho Code §67-7109 and §67-7110 and that the Glenn's Ferry Highway District shall submit to the Elmore County Commissioners an ordinance, a copy of which is attached to this Resolution for passage by the County Commissioners to allow the use and operation of snowmobiles upon the sections of highway as set forth above which fall under the jurisdiction of the Glenns Ferry Highway District.
