

Kristin Armstrong is excited to announce the date and race information for the 2019 Chrono Kristin Armstrong which will take place in Glens Ferry, Idaho.

Date: July 12, 2019

Start/Finish: The racecourse is in Elmore County using Old Oregon Trail Road and Bennett Mountain Road. Racers will use the Glens Ferry High School as their staging area.

Distance: 17 miles

Format: The Elite Women category will start at 9:30 am and the Elite Men will start at 12 pm. Each rider will have a two-minute interval before the next rider starts

Special Guest Category: The Paracycling category will start at 8 am. These incredibly strong athletes are being brought to the Chrono with a special thanks to the Challenged Athlete Foundation.

Chrono Kristin Armstrong is sanctioned by USA Cycling and the UCI. It is the only stand-alone Time Trial in the USA in 2019. The Elite Women and Challenged Athlete categories will include Olympians competing in the 2020 games.

Glens Ferry welcomes you to come and cheer these athletes on to victory.
